BE PART OF HISTORY - SAY NO TO HOWARD'S I.R. LAWS

Authorised by Brian Boyd, Secretary- Victorian Trades Hall Council

Why you should help fill the MCG on November 30!

The Federal Government's new IR laws:

- Remove protection from unfair dismissal for millions of workers.
- Make it easier for employers to push workers onto individual contracts that cut take home pay and conditions.
- Strip back awards.
- Make it easier to cut penalty rates, overtime pay, holiday loadings and public holidays.
- Reduce the powers of the Industrial Relations Commission.
- Change the way minimum wages are set to make them lower.

Just some of the workers' stories, so far, that have been exposed after the new IR laws came in:

Amber Oswald:

Sacked and offered her job back on an AWA that cut her pay by $40 a shift.

Robert Kirkman:

Sacked after 34 years of service and offered his job back with a 30 per cent pay cut.

Annette Harris:

Asked by her employer Spotlight to sign an AWA that removed penalty rates and overtime, as well as annual leave loading and rostered days off for an increase of just 2 cents an hour.

Leonie Wong:

Sacked after refusing to sign an AWA, that would have cut her pay.

Lorissa Stephens:

Sacked after refusing to sign an AWA that included a $200 fine for workers who take sick leave without giving 12 hours notice.
