

Our DSE members lost their workplace at pheasant creek (pheasant creek lies between Kinglake and Kinglake west) while they were away defending Steeles Creek and this photo was taken from the channel 7 helicopter of them sifting through the rubble this morning (Monday).

You can clearly see there burnt out lockers strewn all round the former building walls.

Pretty devastating but no-one injured thankfully.